-He's been found-that guileles here has been found at last, and right here in old Holt county. His cow was killed a few weeks ago by a railroad train, and in answer to the company's interrogatory as to the value of the animal, said she was only an ordinary cow, worth perhaps $35. By return mail he received a letter from the company enclosing a draft for the full amount, and saying this was the first common, ordinary cow killed by their trains since the load was incorporated. It was their misfortune, the claim agent wrote, judg-ing from the claims sent in, to always kill the blooded cows; cows with pedi grees as long as the moral code; cows that were the most prolific milkers and township, or county. He said that the letter of the farmer would be filed away ble for a railroad to kill stock that was not the best of its kind. -- On last Monday evening, 19th inst. Oregon lodge of Masons, held a called communication, to confer the third, or Master Mason degree on a candidate. District Deputy Grand Lecturer, J. J. Denny, of Fairfax, Missouri, was present, and assisted by the officers of Oregon and Forest City lodges conferred this degree in a very complete manner. After the work was done the craft was called to refresments, and the way oysters, sardines, ham sandwiches, cof-fee, etc, disappeared, was proof that honest labor would surely be rewarded by a good healthy appetite. We are pleased to learn that the Masonic lodge of this city is growing rapidly, several of our very best citizens have recently united with the order, and they still have work sufficient to keep them busy for two months yet to come. This is as it should be, for good, benevolent lodges that inculcate brotherly love, relief and the balance wheels that keeps the machiney of a nation running smoothly, they exert an influence that only those that are enrolled as members appreciate. No man is ever injured to the state of the state o morally or socially by being a Mason, an Odd-Fellow or a Knight of Pythiaa.

-James Gran-Adkins-Hart, coal oil inspector for the Kingdom of Mound City, chaperoned by E. E. King, of the Mound City News, was seen in our city on Saturday. Gosh, how Jim has "growed" since his appointment. Some are born great, some achieve greatness, but it all came to our young friend Hart, all "to once" and at the same time.

-Dr. J. S. Meyer and family, of St. Joseph, Mo., were up visiting their many relatives and friends ever Sunday. The Doctor, who has been assistant state veterinarian, will go West in the near future and change his profession to that of M. D. His many friends wish him and his family success in their new

-John Stith, (colored,) who was sent from here to the penitentiary at Jeffer-son City, at the January, 1895 term of circuit court, for grand larceny, to serve a three years' sentence, arrived home Friday morning of last week, looking well. John says that he has learned a whole lot—that he thought he knew more than anyone before he got into trouble—says he has his eyes opened now, and will never get into trouble again—that is easier to keep out than to get into trouble and the way to do so is get into trouble and the way to do so is to behave, do what is right, and you will not be in any danger. John says he is going to live up to just what he says. We hope and believe he will, for he has had a lesson that we do not think he will ever forget, and is yery sincere in his conversation. We trust be will get a good job, and make a useful citizen. He can do it if he will stick to his good resolutions.
